This is a show of works for an audience of children seven years of age and under.

A reception will be held from 10am until 2pm on December 8th to which people of all ages are invited to attend. CASH prizes will be awarded at 2pm sharp.

Rules of Entry

1. ONE entry per person.
2. A non-refundable entry fee of $10 (cash only) will be paid on submission of work together with a completed entry form.
3. ALL submission fees will be redistributed as prize money as follows:

  - * 25% to Honorable Mention (Jurors' choice)
  - * 25% to People's Choice (one vote per visitor until December 15th)

6. Entries with an interactive component (toys) are encouraged.
7. Entries may incorporate commercially manufactured items but the finished piece must show substantial original endeavor by the entrant.
8. Entries should be submitted ready-to-hang at child height (low on the wall), to be placed on the floor, or ready-to-hang from a beam.
9. All works must be for sale. The entrant will set the price between $10 (minimum) and $100 (maximum). Affordable works are strongly encouraged.
10. Moab Art Works will publicize the show locally and throughout the state via traditional and electronic media at the gallery's expense.

11. A gallery commission of 30% of net sales price will be levied on all works sold. Sales tax will be collected by Moab Art Works and paid to the Utah Sales Tax Commission. Entrants whose works sell will be paid 70% of net sales price at the conclusion of the exhibit.

12. Submissions will be received at Moab Art Works gallery on Friday December 7th between the hours of 10am and 6pm. No entries will be accepted after 6pm. Gallery staff will hang the show.

13. Jurors are Julia Myers, Joanne Savoie, Annabelle Numaguchi, Brian Parkin (Moab Art Works), and c k webb. Jurors may submit work at a reduced entry fee of $2.50 but are ineligible for prizes excepting the People's Choice award.

14. All unsold works will be taken down on Sunday December 16th and must be collected by 6pm on Monday December 17th.

We look forward to seeing your works. Have FUN!
